

Written by Роман Вячеславович Белютин

Friday, 20 May 2016 16:20 - Last Updated Friday, 20 May 2016 16:23

---

On the 19th May 2016 a quiz “Youth: an encyclopedia of one word” took place in the German-French reading room of Smolensk Regional Library named after A. T. Tvardovsky. The event took place ahead of the project “Days of Germany in Smolensk”, which starts in the 30th September 2016 under the auspices of the Embassy of Germany in Moscow. Lecturers and students of the philological faculty Smolensk State University took part in the quiz. The organizers told about the semantics of the word "Jugend" in the German language, gave examples of the implementation of this concept in different discursive contexts. The quiz questions were identified encyclopedic and linguistic knowledge of the participants.