

Students of the philological faculty (4 persons) won grants from the Ministry of Science and Higher Education in Poland to participate in the International Summer schools on the Polish Philology. This year the Summer schools will be held at the universities of Toruń and Rzeszów.