

Webinar with the University of Innsbruck named after Leopold Franz (Austria)

Written by Роман Вячеславович Белютин
Thursday, 23 June 2016 10:53 -

On the 22th June 2016 on the basis of the Competence Center of Smolensk State University an international webinar was held. It was attended by the students and lectures of the philological faculty of Smolensk State University and the Department of Romantic Languages at the University of Innsbruck named after Leopold Franz (Austria). During the webinar they discussed some issues concerning the nature of the language of sport in different countries. The students presented their universities and research projects which are realized by them in the learning process at the university.

