

Students of the philological faculty Smolensk State University passed the competitive selection in the educational programme of the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) "Summer college courses". The grant holders of the programme "Summer college courses in Germany" have an opportunity to get a one-month linguistic training in one of the leading universities in Germany.