

Lecturers from Smolensk State University take part in the program “Erasmus+”

Written by Международный отдел - Last Updated Friday, 31 March 2017 10:40

Lecturers of the History and Law Faculty Smolensk State University – Prof. M. M. Kazakov and Assoc. Prof. S. A. Sakharov, visited our partner- university – the University of Bialystok (Poland) – in the framework of the grant program "Erasmus+". From 20th to 24th March 2017 a set of lectures on the modern theory of law was read in English for Polish students. The lecturers from Smolensk State University held meetings with representatives of the partner-university and discussed prospects of further cooperation. The receiving university prepared for our lecturers a rich cultural program and expressed willingness to continue cooperation.

