

Smolensk State University continues cooperation with the Chinese partner-university

Written by Международный отдел
Friday, 30 November 2018 15:46 -

In the academic year 2018-2019 Smolensk State University continues cooperation with the Binhai School of Foreign Affairs of Tianjin Foreign Studies University. In the framework of the cooperation agreement 10 Master students from China study at the philological Faculty of Smolensk State University on the "Philology". In September 2018 Smolensk State University sent for one academic year a lecturer from the university to the partner-university for teaching Chinese students on the program "Russian language as a foreign language".