Pushkin State Russian Language Institute has announced a new volunteer recruitment for the program "Russian language Ambassadors in the world". The goal of the program is to popularize Russian language, history and culture, as well as the development and strengthening of inter-institutional and international partnerships, the establishment of the dialogue of cultures.

In 2015 were selected 74 Russian language Ambassadors who have trained more than 1000 pupils of 24 schools from 4 countries: Armenia, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan and Moldova. This year volunteers will travel to educational expeditions to the regions of the Russian Federation, countries of Asia, North and South America, Africa and Europe.

How to participate in the program:

1. To fill in the questionnaire <http://goo.gl/forms/Ow4ZASrcqk>
2. To write a video fragment of your favorite poem, post it on your page in social networks with the hashtags #sticherarion and #polara and pass it to the six friends.

Questions on the program "Russian language Ambassadors in the world" can be sent to the email address: volunteer@pushkin.institute.
