

From 30th July to 20th August 2017 a traditional Austrian-Russian Summer College will take part in

St. Petersburg

for 20 students from the RF, who is studying German language (A2-B1).

The aim of the project is to activate and to use in practice knowledge of the foreign language. The lecturers from Austria will teach in German language Russian students and the Russian lecturers will teach Austrian students in Russian language Altogether in Summer College will take part 20 Russian and 20 Austrian students. The participants of the program provide free accommodation, education and excursion program, meals (lunch) and a small grant for organization of breakfasts and suppers. Joint trips, meetings and projects are planned. Travel costs to St. Petersburg and back should be covered by participants.

Deadline for Russian students: 25th May 2017

More information about the program: http://kolleg.russischseminar.at/?page_id=23